my story

My name is Theresa Potgieter, I am a wife and mother, with an unbelievable passion for creativity. My glass is always full and I am 110% grateful.

I run a successful personalized graphic design studio, focused on a small niche market, where personal service and creativity takes precedence.

I have been in the graphic design industry since 1999 when I started off as a young business owner in Midrand, Gauteng.

My love and dedication for the art of graphic design has been a cornerstone throughout my life, which helped shape Deer Graphics into what it is today.

From humble beginnings the Deer Graphics name was born with the unknowingly assistance of my late mother who played an incredible role in my early development as a business owner.

Our slogan, "Ardour" is a modest reflection of the enthusiasm and passion you will experience while sharing your project or life long dreams with us.
